Plaintiffs,

vs.

GRITMAN MEDICAL CENTER;
GRITMAN MEDICAL CENTER d/b/a/
MOSCOW FAMILY MEDICINE;
PATRICIA N. MARCIANO, M.D.,
TODD BLEDSOE, PA-C, and OTHERS
TBD,

Defendants.

No. 2:23-CV-00031-MKD

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT
GRITMAN MEDICAL CENTER'S MOTION TO DISMISS, GRANTING DEFENDANTS MARCIANO'S AND BLEDSOE'S MOTION TO DISMISS, AND DENYING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT THE RECORD

ECF Nos. 17, 23, 58

Before the Court are Defendant Gritman's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 17, and Defendant Marciano's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 23, in which Defendant
Bledsoe joins, ECF Nos. 47, 57 and Plaintiffs' Motion to Supplement the Record,
ECF No. 58. On June 26, 2023, the Court conducted a hearing. Mary Schultz appeared on behalf of Plaintiffs. Ann Schroeder and William Schroeder appeared on

1 behalf of Gritman Medical Center and Gritman Medical Center d/b/a/ Moscow
2 Family Medicine (hereinafter, “Gritman”<sup>1</sup>). Michele Atkins and Sabrina Marquez
3 appeared on behalf of Marciano. Sean King appeared on behalf of Markus Louvier, 4 counsel of record for Bledsoe.

5 Defendants seek dismissal without prejudice of the claims against them, based 6 on lack of personal jurisdiction and improper venue. ECF No. 17 at 2; ECF No. 23
7 at 2. Additionally, Plaintiffs filed a motion to supplement the record, requesting that 8 the Court consider three exhibits that relate to Gritman’s ownership interest in two 9 Washington-based physician staffing companies in determining the pending motions
10 to dismiss. ECF Nos. 58-59. The Court has reviewed the record, heard from 11 counsel, and is fully informed. For the reasons set forth below, the Court grants
12 Gritman’s Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 17; grants Marciano’s and Bledsoe’s Motion 13
14

15 <sup>1</sup> The parties dispute whether Gritman Medical Center does business as Moscow
16 Family Medicine. See ECF No. 17 at 1-2, 2 n.1. The Court need not resolve that 17 dispute now. For the purposes of this Order, the Court considers both collectively as 18 “Gritman,” as Plaintiffs do in the Complaint. See, e.g., ECF No. 1 at 3 ¶ 1.10
19 (“Defendants Gritman and Gritman d/b/a/[ ]Moscow Family Medicine (hereinafter 20 ‘Gritman’ collectively)”).

1 to Dismiss, ECF No. 23; and denies Plaintiffs' Motion to Supplement the Record,
2 ECF No. 58.

3 BACKGROUND

4 A. Procedural History

5 On February 5, 2023, Plaintiffs filed this action against Defendants, asserting
6 Washington state law claims relating to the death of Susan Cox. ECF No. 1 at 14-16
7 ¶¶ 3.1-3.13. Plaintiffs assert federal subject matter jurisdiction based on diversity.
8 ECF No. 1 at 5-6 ¶ 1.25. Plaintiffs aver that the Washington courts may exercise 9 specific jurisdiction over Defendants "based upon their nexus with the decedent and 10 the relevant events leading to the suffering and death of Susan Cox." ECF No. 1 at 6
11 ¶ 1.26. Plaintiffs assert that venue is proper in the Eastern District of Washington
12 under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because "a substantial part of the events . . . giving rise 13 to the claim occurred in [the] District." ECF No. 1 at ¶ 1.27.

14 On April 18, 2023, Gritman moved to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction
15 and improper venue, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2) and (3). ECF No. 17. On 16 April 20, 2023, Marciano moved to dismiss on the same grounds. ECF No. 23.
17 Bledsoe joins in Marciano's Motion. ECF No. 57. The Court heard argument on 18 June 26, 2023. ECF No. 50. Following the hearing, the Court permitted
19 supplemental briefing. ECF Nos. 52-55.
20

1 Plaintiffs moved to supplement the record on January 2, 2024. ECF No. 58.
2 The Court denied Plaintiffs' related Motion to Expedite, ECF No. 60. ECF No. 67.
3 Briefing on the Motion to Supplement the Record was complete on January 23,
4 2024. ECF Nos. 65, 68.

5 B. Factual Summary

6 Mark and Susan Cox resided in Albion, Washington, in Whitman County.
7 ECF No. 1 at 2 ¶ 1.5. The Complaint alleges that Defendants provided medical care
8 to Ms. Cox from 2016 until her death. ECF No. 1 at 7 ¶¶ 2.5-2.6. The Complaint
9 further alleges that Defendants placed Ms. Cox on "an ongoing prescriptive
10 medication treatment program" and thereby "directed her treatment with prescription
11 medication, in and from Idaho, in and into Whitman County, Washington." ECF 12 No. 1 at 5 ¶ 1.19. These prescriptions were written in Idaho but transmitted to and 13 filled by pharmacies in Pullman, Washington. ECF No. 1 at 5 ¶ 1.20; ECF No. 33 at 14 4 ¶¶ 9-10. These prescriptions included opioid and benzodiazepine medications, and 15 a nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drug that may affect the metabolism of other 16 medications.<sup>2</sup> ECF No. 1 at 7-10 ¶ 2.8.

17
18

<sup>2</sup> The Complaint identifies five prescription medications: hydrocodone-
19 acetaminophen, oxycodone-acetaminophen, diazepam, tramadol, and Celebrex.
20 ECF No. 1 at 7-10 ¶ 2.8.

1 On August 15, 2022, Ms. Cox died at home. ECF No. 1 at 12-13 ¶¶ 2.17-
2 2.18; ECF No. 33 at 2 ¶ 2. An autopsy concluded that the cause of death was “the 3 toxic effects of multiple drugs (oxycodone, sertraline, gabapentin, diazepam).” ECF
4 No. 33-1 at 3.

5 1. Defendant Gritman

6 Gritman is incorporated and has its principal place of business in Idaho. ECF
7 No. 1 at 2-3 ¶ 1.6; ECF No. 22 at 2 ¶ 2. It pays Idaho taxes. ECF No. 22 at 2 ¶ 2.
8 The medical facilities currently owned and operated by Gritman are located in Idaho.
9 ECF No. 19 at 2 ¶ 4; ECF No. 19-1; ECF No. 51 at 9.

10 Gritman has not owned a clinic in Washington since 2000. ECF No. 22 at 2 11 ¶ 3. In 2012, it registered as a foreign corporation in Washington, but terminated the 12 registration in 2013. ECF No. 22 at 2 ¶ 4; ECF No. 20-1 at 15. Currently, it is not 13 registered as a Washington foreign corporation, is not licensed to operate a hospital
14 in Washington, does not have a registered agent in Washington, and does not pay 15 Washington taxes. ECF No. 22 at 2 ¶ 5.

16 Gritman advertises in Pullman, Washington, in the Lewis and Clark Valley,<sup>3</sup>
17 and in Idaho, “to make people aware of Gritman and the services Gritman can

19 <sup>3</sup> The Lewis and Clark Valley encompasses the cities of Lewiston, Idaho, and 20 Clarkston, Washington.

1 provide at its facilities in Idaho.” ECF No. 18 at 2 ¶¶ 2-3. Gritman’s advertising
2 spans various mediums, including billboards, newspapers, radio, cable television,
3 digital media, and social media. ECF No. 18 at 2 ¶ 2.

4 Gritman’s facilities include four clinics in Latah County, Idaho, that it
5 purchased from MFM-PA in 2018.<sup>4</sup> ECF No. 22 at 3 ¶¶ 9-10. MFM-PA provided
6 Gritman with contracted physician staffing from 2018 until it was dissolved in 2020
7 or 2021. ECF No. 22 at 3-4 ¶¶ 11-12; ECF No. 25 at 2 ¶¶ 3-4. After MFM-PA
8 dissolved, Gritman contracted with MFM-PLLC for similar physician staffing
9 services. ECF No. 22 at 4 ¶ 12; ECF No. 25 at 3 ¶¶ 6-7. Gritman and MFM-PLLC
10 regard these physicians as independent contractors, and not Gritman employees.
11 ECF No. 22 at 3-4 ¶¶ 11-12; ECF No. 25 at 2 ¶ 3, 3 ¶ 7.

12 In addition, Gritman has joined with Pullman Regional Hospital and Whitman
13 Hospital and Medical Clinics to form two companies, Palouse Surgeons, LLC (“PS-

15 <sup>4</sup> Moscow, Idaho, is in Latah County and a short drive from Pullman, Washington.

16 Gritman incorporated “Moscow Family Medicine” into the names of some of its 17 clinics, including “Gritman Moscow Family Medicine Downtown Clinic,” “Gritman
18 Moscow Family Medicine Westside Clinic,” and “Gritman Moscow Family
19 Medicine QuickCare.” ECF No. 22 at 4 ¶ 13. These appear to be the Gritman 20 facilities where Ms. Cox was a patient. ECF No. 33 at 3 ¶ 6.

1 LLC”) and Palouse Specialty Physicians, P.S. (“PSP-PS”). ECF No. 22 at 2-3 ¶¶ 6-
2 8. Both PS-LLC and PSP-PS are Washington companies. ECF No. 22 at 2-3 ¶¶ 7-8.
3 Both have offices in Washington and Idaho. ECF No. 22 at 2-3 ¶¶ 7-8. PS-LLC and 4 PSP-PS provide surgeon and specialty-physician staffing to medical facilities owned 5 by Gritman, Pullman Regional Hospital, and Whitman Hospital and Medical Clinics.
6 ECF No. 22 at 2-3 ¶¶ 7-8. Those surgeons and specialty physicians are considered
7 employees of PS-LLC or PSP-PS, respectively, and independent contractors for the 8 facilities where they work. ECF No. 22 at 2-3 ¶¶ 7-8. There is no indication in the 9 current record that PS-LLC, PSP-PS, or any staff provided by these companies were 10 involved in the incident giving rise to this matter.

11 2. Defendant Marciano

12 Patricia Marciano, M.D., is a family medicine physician licensed to practice
13 medicine in Idaho; she has never been licensed to practice medicine in Washington.
14 ECF No. 24 at 2 ¶ 6. She was an Idaho resident throughout the time she treated 15 Ms. Cox. ECF No. 24 at 2 ¶ 3.

16 Marciano states she was directly employed by Moscow Family Medicine,
17 P.A. (“MFM-PA”) from 2014 to 2020, and has been directly employed by Moscow
18
20

1 Family Medicine MFM, PLLC (“MFM-PLLC”)<sup>5</sup> since 2021. ECF No. 23 at 2-3;
2 ECF No. 24 at 2 ¶ 4. She states she was not a Gritman employee during the period
3 she treated Ms. Cox and has never been employed by a Washington entity. ECF
4 No. 24 at 2 ¶ 7. Ms. Cox became Marciano’s patient in 2016. ECF No. 19 at 3 ¶ 11.
5 In 2018, Gritman bought several clinics from MFM-PA. ECF No. 19 at 3 ¶ 11; ECF
6 No. 51 at 9. After the purchase, Marciano worked for Gritman as an independent
7 contractor at the clinics through a staffing contract between Gritman and MFM-PA,
8 but remained employed by MFM-PA. ECF No. 19 at 3 ¶ 11; ECF No. 24 at 2 ¶ 5.

9 Marciano states that she handled all medical care, healthcare visits, treatment
10 recommendations, prescriptions, and related communications with Ms. Cox in or 11 from Idaho. ECF No. 24 at 2-3 ¶ 8.

12 3. Defendant Bledsoe

13 Todd Bledsoe was a certified physician assistant (PA-C) licensed in Idaho at 14 the time of his retirement in 2018. ECF No. 48 at 2 ¶ 2. The last time he provided 15

16 <sup>5</sup> MFM-PLLC “is a physician-owned medical practice group was organized under 17 the laws of, incorporated in, and headquartered in the State of Idaho.” ECF No. 25
18 at 2 ¶ 5. MFM-PLLC contracts with Gritman and other Idaho medical clinics to 19 provide physician staffing. ECF No. 25 at 3 ¶ 6. MFM-PLLC does not own or 20 operate the clinics where it provides contracted staffing. ECF No. 25 at 3 ¶ 8.

1 medical care in Washington was in 2010. ECF No. 48 at 3 ¶ 7. From 2010 to 2015,
2 he worked for “Moscow Medical”<sup>6</sup> in Moscow, Idaho, which has no affiliation with 3 Gritman or the “Moscow Family Medicine” entities.<sup>7</sup> ECF No. 48 at 2 ¶ 6. From 4 2015 to 2016, he worked for a hospital in Grangeville, Idaho. ECF No. 48 at 2 ¶ 5.
5 Finally, from 2016 until 2018, he worked for the Idaho Department of Corrections.
6 ECF No. 48 at 2 ¶ 4. He has not been employed by Gritman or a Gritman-affiliated 7 entity since 2007. ECF No. 48 at 3 ¶ 10.

8 The parties dispute whether Bledsoe, is connected to Gritman for the purposes
9 of this case—Plaintiffs allege in the Complaint that Bledsoe worked for Gritman
10 during the relevant time period. ECF No. 1 at 4 ¶ 1.15. Bledsoe states he worked 11 for Moscow Medical, an entity that is not affiliated with Gritman, when he last 12 treated Susan Cox. ECF No. 48 at 2 ¶ 6, 3 ¶¶ 8-9. Gritman concurs with Bledsoe.
13 ECF No. 19 at 3 ¶ 13.

14
15
16 <sup>6</sup> Gritman’s filings refer to this entity as “Moscow Medical Clinic” and confirm that 17 this entity is not affiliated with Gritman. ECF No. 19 at 3 ¶ 13.

18 <sup>7</sup> It is unclear whether Bledsoe’s reference to “Moscow Family Medicine” is directed
19 at MFM-PA, MFM-PLLC, Gritman’s similarly named facilities, or some other entity 20 entirely.

1 Bledsoe asserts that all medical care he provided Ms. Cox after 2010 would 2 have taken place solely in Idaho.<sup>8</sup> ECF No. 48 at 3-4 ¶ 12. He handled all
3 healthcare visits, treatment recommendations, prescriptions, and communications
4 with Ms. Cox after 2010 in or from Idaho. ECF No. 48 at 3-4 ¶ 12.

5 PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT THE RECORD

6 Plaintiffs seek to supplement the record with three exhibits that relate to PS-
7 LLC and PSP-PS, the Washington staffing companies in which Gritman holds an 8 ownership share. ECF No. 58 at 2. Plaintiffs do not authenticate the proposed

11 in Washington, before he left that facility in 2010. ECF No. 48 at 3 ¶¶ 7, 9.

12 Plaintiffs suggest this means “Defendants’ prescription treatment may date back to 13 the year 2010.” ECF No. 56 at 3. However, Bledsoe’s counsel noted at the motion 14 hearing that Bledsoe lacked access to any relevant medical records at the time he 15 completed his declaration, so his representations were made solely from memory.
16 ECF No. 51 at 7. Plaintiffs provide pharmacy records dating back to 2013 that 17 reflect Bledsoe wrote prescriptions for Ms. Cox in May, June, and July 2015. ECF
18 No. 56 at 2-3 (citing ECF No. 55-1 at 14-15). In sum, there is no specific allegation
19 or indication that Bledsoe saw Ms. Cox in Washington or before 2010, beyond 20 Bledsoe’s statement that he “may” have done so.

1 exhibits, beyond providing an affidavit from counsel stating that they are true and 2 correct copies of the purported documents, nor do Plaintiffs explain why these 3 materials were not provided earlier. ECF No. 58; ECF No. 59 at 2. Gritman 4 opposes, contending that the proposed exhibits are immaterial, unauthenticated, and 5 inadmissible. ECF No. 65 at 3-5. Gritman also argues that the Court's 6 consideration of material outside the pleadings would convert these Motions to 7 Dismiss into motions for summary judgment, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(d). ECF No.
8 65 at 3. Marciano joins in Gritman's opposition. ECF No. 66.

9 Rule 12(d) applies to motions brought under Rule 12(b)(6) or Rule 12(c).
10 See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(d); 5C Wright & Miller, Fed. Prac. & Proc. Civ. § 1366 (3d
11 ed. Feb. 2024) ("Since a motion for summary judgment is designed to test the merits
12 or the viability of the claim, the defenses enumerated in Rule 12(b)(1) through Rule 13 12(b)(5) and Rule 12(b)(7) generally are not proper subjects for motions for 14 summary judgment.") (citing related cases in footnote 7). The Court may consider
15 matters outside the pleadings in relation to a Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2) or 12(b)(3)
16 motion. Murphy v. Schneider National, Inc., 362 F.3d 1133, 1137 (9th Cir. 2004)
17 (Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(3) motion); Doe v. Unocal Corp., 248 F.3d 915, 911 (9th Cir.
18 2001) (Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2) motion), overruled on other grounds by Williams v.
19 Yamaha Motor Co., 851 F.3d 1015, 1024 (9th Cir. 2017); Data Disc, Inc. v. Sys.
20 Tech. Assocs., Inc., 557 F.2d 1280, 1284-86 (9th Cir. 1977).

1 Defendants have raised Rule 12(b)(2) (lack of personal jurisdiction) and Rule
2 12(b)(3) (improper venue) in the pending motions, so the Court may consider 3 matters outside the pleadings.

4 However, these exhibits are not materially relevant under the current briefing.
5 In its initial filings, Gritman acknowledged its ownership shares in PS-LLC and 6 PSP-PS and stated that these companies are Washington entities. ECF No. 17 at 3-4; 7 ECF No. 22 at 2-3 ¶¶ 7-8. Plaintiffs could have raised arguments relating to these 8 ownership shares in their response or supplemental briefing, but they did not. As a 9 result, Plaintiffs did not provide legal authority supporting their contention that these 10 ownership shares are relevant to the jurisdictional inquiry. Whether jurisdiction over 11 a defendant is justified by a related entity's contacts with the forum is not a 12 straightforward issue. See, e.g., In re Boon Global, Ltd., 923 F.3d 643, 650 (9th Cir.
13 2019); Williams v. Yamaha Motor Co., 851 F.3d 1015, 1021 (9th Cir. 2017); Ranza
14 v. Nike, Inc., 793 F.3d 1059, 1073 (9th Cir. 2015); 4A Wright & Miller, Fed. Prac. &
15 Proc. Civ. § 1069.4 (4th ed. Apr. 2023). Where Plaintiffs raise this issue belatedly
16 and without proper briefing, they ask the Court to presume that jurisdiction over 17 Gritman would be legally justified by Gritman's relationship to PS-LLC and PSP-
18 PS. The Court declines to do so.

19 Accordingly, the Court denies Plaintiffs' Motion to Supplement. The Court
20 discusses Gritman's ownership shares in PS-LLC and PSP-PS below to the sole

1 extent that these shares were addressed in the initial and supplemental briefing.

2 DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS TO DISMISS

3 Defendants contend that the Court may not exercise personal jurisdiction over 4 them and that venue is improper in this district.

5 A. Legal Standard

6 A defendant may move for dismissal based on a lack of personal jurisdiction
7 or improper venue pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2) or (b)(3), respectively.

8 It is the plaintiff's burden to establish that personal jurisdiction is proper.
9 Herbal Brands, Inc. v. Photoplaza, Inc., 72 F.4th 1085, 1090 (9th Cir. 2023) (citing 10 Mavrix Photo, Inc. v. Brand Techs., Inc., 647 F.3d 1218, 1223 (9th Cir. 2011)).

11 "When a defendant's motion to dismiss on jurisdictional grounds rests only on 12 written materials rather than on testimony at an evidentiary hearing, 'the plaintiff
13 need only make a prima facie showing of jurisdictional facts.'" Id. (quoting 14 Schwarzenegger v. Fred Martin Motor Co., 374 F.3d 797, 800 (9th Cir. 2004)).
15 "The plaintiff cannot 'simply rest on the bare allegations of its complaint,' but 16 uncontroverted allegations in the complaint must be taken as true." Mavrix Photo, 17 647 F.3d at 1223 (quoting Schwarzenegger, 374 F.3d at 800).

18 Similarly, it is the plaintiff's burden to show that venue is proper. Esters v.
19 Vanguard Clinical, Inc., No. 23-CV-820, 2023 WL 6930640, at *2 (S.D. Cal. Oct.
20 18, 2023) (citing Piedmont Label Co. v. Sun Garden Packing Co., 598 F.2d 491, 496

1 (9th Cir. 1979)). “[T]he allegations in the complaint need not be accepted as true[,]
2 and the Court may consider evidence outside the pleadings.” Id. (quoting eBay Inc.
3 v. Digit. Point Sols., Inc., 608 F. Supp. 2d 1156, 1161 (N.D. Cal. 2009)) (quotation
4 marks omitted).

5 B. Personal Jurisdiction

6 Defendants argue that a Washington court may not exercise personal 7 jurisdiction over them, as Idaho residents, in a case based on medical treatment
8 rendered in Idaho. ECF No. 17 at 2; ECF No. 23 at 2-3, 11.

9 “Two authorities govern a federal court’s exercise of personal jurisdiction
10 over a defendant: the Fourteenth Amendment’s Due Process Clause and the long
11 arm statute of the state in which the district court sits.” Briskin v. Shopify, Inc., 87
12 F.4th 404, 411 (9th Cir. 2023) (citations omitted).

13 1. Long-Arm Statute

14 Defendants contend that the Washington courts have rejected personal 15 jurisdiction over a nonresident medical provider for alleged malpractice committed 16 outside Washington where the plaintiff’s injury manifested in Washington. ECF No.
17 17 at 16-17; ECF No. 23 at 10-11.

18 Indeed, the Washington Supreme Court has held that the Washington courts
19 lack personal jurisdiction over nonresident physicians sued for medical malpractice
20 for medical services rendered in another state. Swank v. Valley Christian Sch., 398

1 P.3d 1108, 1123 (Wash. 2017) (“Swank II”); Lewis ex rel. Lewis v. Bours, 835 P.2d
2 221, 225 (Wash. 1992). Both cases involved similar facts: a patient received
3 medical care in a neighboring state, then suffered an injury in Washington allegedly 4 caused by that medical care. Lewis, 835 P.2d at 222; Swank II, 398 P.3d at 1113-14.

5 In Lewis, the plaintiff, a Washington resident, received prenatal care and gave 6 birth at defendant physician’s Oregon clinic. Lewis, 835 P.2d at 222. The defendant
7 discharged the plaintiff and infant child and instructed her to take the child to a 8 doctor once they returned home to Washington. Id. The child stopped breathing on 9 the drive home, after the plaintiff crossed back into Washington. Id. The plaintiff
10 sued the defendant physician in Washington, alleging he had committed a tort in 11 Washington because her child’s injury manifested in Washington. Id. at 222-23.

12 Pursuant to RCW 4.28.185(1)(b), the Washington courts may exercise
13 jurisdiction over a defendant who commits a tortious act within Washington. Id. at 14 223. At the time Lewis was decided, Washington courts considered an in-state 15 injury to be “an inseparable part of the tortious act” such that the tort “is deemed to 16 have occurred in [Washington] for purposes of the long-arm statute.” Id. (citations
17 and quotation marks omitted). However, the Lewis court disagreed and carved out 18 an exception to that rule for malpractice actions. Id. at 225. The court noted that the 19 plaintiff “unilaterally sought out [the] defendant’s professional services in Oregon
20 and traveled to Oregon to receive them.” Id. “All care, negligent and/or otherwise,

1 was rendered in Oregon.” Id. The defendant was not involved in any care the child
2 received in Washington nor in the child’s subsequent medical care in Oregon. Id.
3 The court held that “in the case of professional malpractice, a tort is not committed 4 in Washington if the alleged act of malpractice was committed out-of-state[,] even 5 though the injuries may manifest themselves in Washington.” Id. Accordingly, the 6 court held that the Washington courts could not exercise personal jurisdiction over 7 the defendant under RCW 4.28.185. Id.

8 In Swank II, a student patient and his family were Idaho residents, although he 9 attended high school in Spokane Valley, Washington. Swank II, 398 P.3d at 1113.
10 The student sustained a head injury while playing football, and his mother took him
11 to his long-time primary care physician, in Coeur d’Alene, Idaho. Id.

12 The doctor was previously licensed to practice medicine in Washington but 13 had been solely licensed in Idaho for several years when he treated the student.
14 Swank v. Valley Christian Sch., 374 P.3d 245, 250 (Wash. Ct. App. 2016) (“Swank 15 I”), aff’d in part, rev’d in part by Swank II, 398 P.3d 1108. A small percentage of 16 his patients were Washington residents, and he sometimes sent prescriptions to 17 Washington pharmacies. Id. He began treating the Swank family shortly after 18 joining a practice group incorporated in Idaho. Id. All treatment he provided to the 19 student took place in Idaho. Id.

20 The doctor recommended limiting the student’s sports activities for several

1 days and prescribed ibuprofen. Swank II, 398 P.3d at 1113. Later, the student's 2 mother called the doctor's office, reporting that the student's symptoms had resolved
3 and asking the doctor to sign a release allowing the student to return to football
4 practice, as required by a new Washington law. Id. The doctor signed the requested
5 release, which the student's parents picked up in Idaho and took to his school in 6 Spokane Valley, Washington. Id. The following day, the student played in a 7 football game, where his condition visibly and dramatically deteriorated, and he 8 eventually died two days later. Id. at 1113-14.

9 The student's parents sued the doctor, alleging negligence and violations of 10 the Washington law that required a physician's release form. Id. at 1114. Citing 11 Lewis, the Washington Supreme Court held that the Washington courts lacked 12 personal jurisdiction over the doctor because "[a]ll relevant actions that [he] took 13 occurred in Idaho." Id. at 1123. The court specifically declined to distinguish Lewis
14 on the basis that the doctor "released [the student] to play football in Washington, 15 for a Washington school, and pursuant to Washington law." Id. at 1123. The court 16 explained that the goal of the Lewis line of cases was to "ensur[e] that medical 17 services are fully available to all people" by avoiding situations where "doctors were 18 worried about having to defend malpractice suits in distant states."<sup>9</sup> Id. at 1122

19 _____
20 <sup>9</sup> This concern is illustrated by Defendants' cited case, Greco v. Northwell Health,

1 (citing Grange Ins. Ass’n v. State, 757 P.2d 933, 939 (Wash. 1988)) (quotation
2 marks omitted). The Washington courts have also reasoned that “the rendition of 3 services is more personal in nature than is the sale of goods, such that the location 4 where the services are performed is of greater jurisdictional importance than is the 5 location where a product is bought.” Id. (citing Grange Ins., 757 P.2d at 939)
6 (quotation marks omitted).

7 Plaintiffs attempt to distinguish Lewis and Swank II, arguing that the 8 defendants in those cases never acted within Washington, while Defendants here
9 “were continuously ordering Washington pharmacists in Washington to deliver 10 drugs to Washington residents as part of their health care plan.” ECF No. 34 at 24-11 25 (emphasis in original). Plaintiffs overstate Defendants’ role in where these 12 prescriptions went—as discussed below, the current record indicates it was 13 Ms. Cox’s sole choice where to fill her prescriptions, whether in Washington, Idaho, 14 or somewhere else. Plaintiffs provide no legal authority showing that the 15 Washington courts distinguish between the type of medical care provided in Swank
16

---

17 Inc., No. 21-CV-188, 2022 WL 533047 (E.D. Wash. Feb. 22, 2022). In Greco, the 18 defendant’s only demonstrated contact with Washington was that the plaintiff
19 happened to return home to Washington after receiving 6 consecutive days of 20 medical care at the defendant’s New York facilities. Id. at *1, *4.

1 II and the type of medical care Defendants provided to Ms. Cox. The doctor in 2 Swank II also sent prescriptions to Washington pharmacies, and his medical facility
3 worked with Washington laboratories and accepted Washington insurance. See
4 Swank I, 374 P.3d at 250. The Swank II court did not consider these to be “relevant 5 actions” in the tort underlying the plaintiff’s claim. Swank II, 398 P.3d at 1123. Nor 6 was it enough that the doctor had signed a release form, knowing it would be taken 7 to a Washington school, to satisfy a requirement of Washington law. Id.

8 Plaintiffs cite Cubbage v. Merchant, 744 F.2d 665, 667 (9th Cir. 1984), which 9 addressed whether a California court had personal jurisdiction over Arizonan 10 defendants, and two Illinois court cases addressing venue challenges, Tipton by 11 Stevens v. Estate of Cusick, 651 N.E.2d 635, 637 (Ill. App. Ct. 1995) and Braun v.
12 Apside Medical, 175 N.E.3d 255, 263 (Ill. App. Ct. 2020), to argue that the 13 circumstances here are distinguishable from Swank II. ECF No. 54 at 2-8. The 14 question before the Court is whether Washington’s long-arm statute permits the 15 exercise of personal jurisdiction over Defendants notwithstanding the specific 16 exception for medical malpractice claims that the Washington courts recognized in 17 Lewis and Swank II. Cubbage, Tipton, and Braun do not address, and cannot 18 override, the Washington Supreme Court’s interpretation of Washington’s long-arm 19 statute.

20 The Court is unpersuaded that Lewis and Swank II are distinguishable from

1 this case and, therefore, that the Washington long-arm statute does not authorize the 2 Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants in this case.

3       2. Due Process Analysis

4       Defendants also argue that due process prohibits the exercise of personal 5 jurisdiction in this case. ECF No. 17 at 11-15; ECF No. 23 at 5-11.

6       “Due process permits a court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a 7 defendant only when ‘the defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with the forum
8 state such that the maintenance of the suit does not offend traditional notions of fair
9 play and substantial justice.’” Briskin, 87 F.4th at 411 (quoting Impossible Foods
10 Inc. v. Impossible X LLC, 80 F.4th 1079, 1086 (9th Cir. 2023)). “Personal
11 jurisdiction comes in two varieties: general and specific.” Id. “General jurisdiction 12 ‘extends to any and all claims brought against a defendant,’ but it is appropriate only 13 ‘when a defendant is essentially at home in the State.’” Id. (quoting Ford Motor Co.
14 v. Mont. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 592 U.S. 351, 358 (2021)). Conversely, a court may 15 have “specific jurisdiction” over a nonresident defendant, “but only as to a narrower 16 class of claims” provided that certain conditions are met. Id. (citing Ford Motor 17 Co., 592 U.S. at 359 (quotation marks omitted).

18       Gritman argues that its facilities are located in, and its medical services
19 occurred, solely within Idaho and that it does not have contacts with Washington
20 sufficient to permit a Washington court to exercise general or specific jurisdiction

1 over it in this case. ECF No. 17 at 11-15. Marciano argues that she is an Idaho
2 resident who lacks contacts with Washington, therefore a Washington court cannot 3 exercise general or specific jurisdiction over her. ECF No. 23 at 7-11. Similarly,
4 Bledsoe states he has not resided in Washington since 1998 and has not provided
5 medical care in Washington since 2010. ECF No. 48 at 2 ¶ 3, 3 ¶ 7.

6 Plaintiffs disagree, arguing primarily that the prescriptions Defendants sent to 7 Washington pharmacies, and Gritman’s connections to Washington entities, suffice
8 to establish either general or specific jurisdiction. ECF No. 34 at 5-25.

9 In the Complaint, Plaintiffs only asserted specific jurisdiction, not general
10 jurisdiction. ECF No. 1 at 6 ¶ 1.26. Plaintiffs now claim in there is also sufficient
11 basis for general jurisdiction. ECF No. 34 at 5. Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(1), “[a] 12 pleading that states a claim for relief must contain: . . . a short and plain statement of 13 the grounds for the court’s jurisdiction. . . .” Defendants do not argue that Plaintiffs 14 have insufficiently stated a claim for relief under the requirements of Rule 8(a)(1).
15 On the contrary, Defendants raise (and argue against) general jurisdiction in their 16 Motions. ECF No. 17 at 11; ECF No. 23 at 7. The Court will consider the general
17 jurisdiction issue given there is no indication that Defendants have been prejudiced
18 by Plaintiffs’ omission, and Plaintiffs could otherwise amend the Complaint or refile 19 the case to include a “general jurisdiction” basis.
20

1 i. General Jurisdiction

2 Defendants assert that the Court may not exercise general jurisdiction over 3 them because they are not Washington residents and lack sufficiently continuous and 4 systematic contacts with Washington. ECF No. 17 at 11-12; ECF No. 23 at 7-8.

5 “A court has general jurisdiction over a defendant only when the defendant’s
6 contacts with the forum state are so ‘continuous and systematic as to render [them]
7 essentially at home in the forum State.’” LNS Enters. LLC v. Cont’l Motors, Inc., 22 8 F.4th 852, 859 (9th Cir. 2022) (alteration in original) (quoting Daimler AG v.
9 Bauman, 571 U.S. 117, 127 (2014)). “[O]nly a limited set of affiliations with a 10 forum will render a defendant amenable to all-purpose [general] jurisdiction there.”
11 Daimler, 571 U.S. at 137. “For an individual, the paradigm forum for the exercise 12 of general jurisdiction is the individual’s domicile; for a corporation,” it is the place
13 of incorporation and principal place of business. Goodyear Dunlop Tires
14 Operations, S.A., v. Brown, 564 U.S. 915, 924 (2011) (citation omitted).

15 The Supreme Court has noted there may be other forums, besides the place of 16 incorporation and principal place of business, where a corporation could be subject
17 to general jurisdiction. See Daimler, 571 U.S. at 137-38 (discussing Goodyear, 564 18 U.S. at 924). However, the Court squarely rejected that a corporation could be 19 subject to general jurisdiction “in every state in which [it] engages in a substantial, 20 continuous, and systematic course of business.” Id. (quotation marks and citation

1 omitted). The Court also rejected the contention that a foreign corporation could be 2 subjected to general jurisdiction “whenever they have an in-state subsidiary or 3 affiliate.” Id. at 135-36.

4 A few years later, the Supreme Court reiterated that “in-state business . . .
5 does not suffice to permit the assertion of general jurisdiction over claims . . . that 6 are unrelated to any activity occurring in” the forum state. BNSF Ry. Co. v. Tyrrell,
7 581 U.S. 402, 414 (2017). In BNSF, the defendant had “over 2,000 miles of railroad 8 track and more than 2,000 employees” in the forum state, but even that amount of 9 in-state business failed to render the defendant “essentially at home” there. Id.

10 The record indicates that Marciano and Bledsoe are domiciled in Idaho. ECF
11 No. 24 at 2 ¶¶ 3, 6; ECF No. 48 at 2 ¶¶ 2-3. Gritman is incorporated and has a 12 principal place of business in Idaho and has not operated facilities in Washington
13 since approximately 2000. ECF No. 22 at 2 ¶¶ 2-3; ECF No. 20-1 at 2; ECF No. 19
14 at 2 ¶ 4. An out-of-state corporation is not subject to jurisdiction simply because it
15 has an in-state subsidiary or affiliate, thus, Gritman’s ownership shares in PSP-PS
16 and PS-LLC do not suffice to establish general jurisdiction in Washington. See 17 Daimler, 571 U.S. at 135-36.

18 At most, Plaintiffs have argued that Gritman advertises in Washington and 19 that Gritman providers send prescriptions to Washington pharmacies. These in-state 20 activities are far less substantial than the 2,000 miles of railroad track and the 2,000

1 employees that were found insufficient in BNSF. See BNSF Ry. Co., 581 U.S. at 2 414. The Court finds that Plaintiffs have failed to establish a proper basis for the 3 Court to exercise general jurisdiction over Defendants.

4 ii. Specific Jurisdiction

5 Defendants further argue that they lack sufficient contacts with Washington to 6 permit the Court to exercise specific jurisdiction over them in this case. ECF No. 17
7 at 12-15; ECF No. 23 at 8-11.

8 “For specific jurisdiction to exist over a non-resident defendant, three 9 conditions must be met.” Briskin, 87 F.4th at 411.

10 First, “the defendant must either ‘purposefully direct his 11 activities’ toward the forum or ‘purposefully avail himself
12 of the privileges of conducting activities in the forum’”; 13 second, “the claim must be one which arises out of or relates to the defendant’s forum-related activities”; and third, “the exercise of jurisdiction must comport with fair play and substantial justice, i.e.,] it must be reasonable.”

14 Id. (quoting Axiom Foods, Inc. v. Acerchem Int’l, Inc., 874 F.3d 1064, 1068 (9th Cir.
15 2017)) (alteration omitted). “The plaintiff bears the burden on the first two prongs.”

16 Id. at 412 (citing Ayla, LLC v. Alya Skin Pty. Ltd., 11 F.4th 972, 979 (9th Cir.
17 2021)). If the plaintiff carries this burden, “then the defendant ‘must come forward
18
19
20

1 with a compelling case that the exercise of jurisdiction would not be reasonable.”

2 Id. (quoting Ayla, 11 F.4th at 979).

3 “Purposeful availment” and “purposeful direction” are distinct concepts,
4 though not separated by a “hard-and-fast rule.” Davis v. Cranfield Aerospace Sols.,
5 Ltd., 71 F.4th 1154, 1162 (9th Cir. 2023). “Purposeful availment” is established if 6 the defendant’s “entire course of dealing with the forum state” indicates that it
7 “deliberately reached out beyond [its] home—by, for example, exploiting a market
8 in the forum State or entering a contractual relationship centered there.” Davis, 71
9 F.4th at 1163 (citations and quotation marks omitted) (alteration in original).

10 “Purposeful direction” is established if the defendant allegedly “(1) committed an 11 intentional act, (2) expressly aimed at the forum state, (3) causing harm that the 12 defendant knows is likely to be suffered in the forum state.” Id. at 1162-63 (citation 13 omitted). But overall, a defendant’s contacts with the forum state “must be the 14 defendant’s own choice and not ‘random, isolated, or fortuitous.’” Ford Motor Co., 15 592 U.S. at 359 (citing Keeton v. Hustler Mag., Inc., 465 U.S. 770, 774 (1984)).

16 Plaintiffs argue that Defendants are subject to specific jurisdiction in 17 Washington because they transmitted prescriptions to Washington pharmacies. ECF
18 No. 34 at 4, 9-12. Plaintiffs provide no authority supporting their contention that a 19 provider’s transmission of a prescription to an out-of-state pharmacy, at the patient’s 20

1 request, suffices to show purposeful direction or purposeful availment.<sup>10</sup> At most,
2 Plaintiffs liken it to computer hacking, which is not a persuasive analogy. See ECF
3 No. 34 at 22-23.

4 Moreover, the record indicates that the fact Ms. Cox's prescriptions were 5 filled in Washington was not based on Defendants' own choices, but instead, based 6 on the "fortuitous" circumstance that Ms. Cox chose to fill her prescriptions in 7 Pullman, Washington. See Ford Motor Co., 592 U.S. at 359. Plaintiffs do not
8 contend that Gritman, Marciano, or Bledsoe required Ms. Cox to fill her 9 prescriptions at Washington pharmacies. Defendants state that where its patients'
10 prescriptions are filled is "the patient's choice, even if the pharmacy is located 11 outside of Idaho." ECF No. 19 at 2 ¶ 9; ECF No. 51 at 17. Gritman has provided
12 medical records reflecting instances where Ms. Cox requested that her prescription
13 be sent to a particular Washington pharmacy or printed for her to pick up in person
14 in Idaho. ECF No. 42 at 6-9, 11-12, 15-16. Plaintiffs argue that "we don't know 15

16 <sup>10</sup> An analogous case cited in the briefing is Wright v. Yackley, 459 F.2d 287 (9th 17 Cir. 1972). See ECF No. 46 at 5; ECF No. 54 at 6. In Wright, the Ninth Circuit held 18 that a physician's mailing of prescriptions into Idaho from South Dakota did not
19 suffice to permit an Idaho court to exercise personal jurisdiction over the physician.
20 Wright, 459 F.2d at 288-91.

1 what occurred here . . . if it was the patient’s choice” where to fill their prescriptions.
2 ECF No. 51 at 24. But the undisputed evidence in the record indicates that it was 3 Ms. Cox’s own choice where her prescriptions were sent.

4 In sum, the fact that prescriptions written by Marciano and Bledsoe, or 5 Gritman providers, were filled in Washington does not suffice to constitute 6 purposeful availment or direction by Gritman, Marciano, or Bledsoe. The specific 7 jurisdiction analysis fails at the first prong of the due process inquiry.

8 C. Personal Jurisdiction vs. Conflict of Laws

9 The Court briefly notes that Defendants have raised a conflict-of-laws issue—
10 which state’s substantive law governs in this case—to argue against the Court’s
11 exercise of personal jurisdiction. See, e.g., ECF No. 17 at 8-9; ECF No. 51 at 14-15.
12 Personal jurisdiction and conflict of laws are distinct issues.<sup>11</sup> See, e.g., Phillips

13
14 <sup>11</sup> To clarify this distinction, personal jurisdiction is sometimes characterized as 15 adjudicative jurisdiction, i.e., “the power of a state to try a particular action in its 16 courts,” while conflict of laws is characterized as legislative jurisdiction, i.e., “the 17 power of a state to apply its laws to any given set of facts.” Adventure Commc’ns, 18 Inc. v. Ky. Registry of Election Fin., 191 F.3d 429, 435 (4th Cir. 1999) (emphases in 19 original) (citation and quotation marks omitted); see also Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v.
20 California, 509 U.S. 764, 813-14, 820 (1993) (Scalia, J., dissenting).

1 Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 823 (1985) (finding no defect in the forum
2 state’s exercise of personal jurisdiction but holding that the forum state could not 3 apply its own substantive law to all claims of the plaintiff class). Whether Idaho or 4 Washington’s substantive law governs Plaintiffs’ claims is an issue that must be 5 decided by a court with proper jurisdiction, applying the conflict-of-laws rules
6 applicable in that state. See Klaxon Co. v. Stentor Elec. Mfg. Co., 313 U.S. 487,
7 496-97 (1941); Nguyen v. Barnes & Noble Inc., 763 F.3d 1171, 1175 (9th Cir. 2014)
8 (holding that a federal court sitting in diversity must apply the conflict-of-laws rules 9 of the state in which it sits).

10 D. Jurisdictional Discovery

11 Plaintiffs alternatively request that the Court permit jurisdictional discovery.
12 ECF No. 34 at 25-27. “Jurisdictional discovery should ordinarily be granted where 13 pertinent facts bearing on the question of jurisdiction are controverted or where a 14 more satisfactory showing of the facts is necessary.” LNS Enters., 22 F.4th at 864 15 (quotation marks and citation omitted). “But a mere hunch that discovery might 16 yield jurisdictionally relevant facts, or bare allegations in the face of specific denials, 17 are insufficient reasons for a court to grant jurisdictional discovery.” Yamashita v.
18 LG Chem, Ltd., 62 F.4th 496, 507 (9th Cir. 2023) (quoting LNS Enters., 22 F.4th at 19 864-65) (quotation marks omitted).

1 The parties do not dispute the facts most critical to determining personal
2 jurisdiction over Defendants—that they are Idaho residents and that their relevant
3 contacts with Washington were limited to prescriptions and communications that 4 crossed into Washington.<sup>12</sup> Plaintiffs have not demonstrated how jurisdictional 5 discovery might yield jurisdictionally relevant facts beyond their mere hunch that 6 such facts may exist. See Yamashita, 62 F.4th at 507. Therefore, the Court denies 7 Plaintiffs’ request for jurisdictional discovery.

8 CONCLUSION

9 For the above reasons, Plaintiffs have failed to establish a proper basis for the 10 Court to exercise personal jurisdiction over Gritman, Marciano, or Bledsoe in this 11 case. The Court need not reach Defendants’ venue arguments.

12 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

14 <sup>12</sup> The Court does not give weight to Plaintiffs’ arguments that Defendants (1) are 15 constructively licensed to provide health care in Washington or (2) effectively
16 deliver controlled substances into Washington. See ECF No. 34 at 15-21; ECF
17 No. 54 at 7-11. Plaintiffs cite no authority showing that Washington recognizes 18 such constructive licenses or considers an out-of-state physician to have delivered 19 controlled substances into Washington simply because their patient fills a controlled-
20 substance prescription in Washington.

1           1.     Plaintiffs’ Motion to Supplement the Record, ECF No. 58, is DENIED.

2           2.     Defendant Gritman’s Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 17, is GRANTED.

3           3.     Defendant Marciano’s Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 23, which 4 Defendant Bledsoe has joined, is GRANTED.

5           4.     This case is DISMISSED without prejudice.

6           IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk’s Office is directed to file this Order, 7 provide copies to counsel, enter judgment of dismissal without prejudice, and 8 CLOSE the file.
